

Sea Kayak Safari

Six nights ex Johannesburg

Discover the places between the places where tourists usually go!

Key Features

With the best multi-day sea kayaking in Southern Africa on offer, this is an opportunity for adventurers and outdoor enthusiasts to get wet, get active, and get out there!

Covering 60km in four days of paddling, the route has it all: secluded bays, deserted islands, mile-long beaches and open-water crossings. Not to mention the warm, clean and endless waters of the world's fourth largest lake. Or the fish eagles, the tropical fish and the forested mountains that form the rim of the African Rift Valley...

Days will be spent paddling, swimming, snorkeling and generally working up an appetite. Overnight stops are at a variety of lodges and campsites along the way. Kayak Africa will provide all logistics including guides, support boat, kayaking and camp equipment. And of course delicious meals and cold drinks!

Participants provide a love of the outdoors and a willingness to achieve something special.

Day 1: Flight from Johannesburg to Lilongwe. Kayak Africa airport pick-up, then scenic road transfer to the southern lakeshore. Overnight at Nanchengwa Lodge.

Day 2: After a familiarisation and safety briefing on the beach, hit the water for the 22km to Chirombo Bay near Monkey Bay. Overnight at Chirombo Bay.

Day 3: A 20km paddle past Monkey Bay and the

♥ The paddling group is accompanied by guides and supported by a motorised boat and land crew.

♥ Kayak Africa's guide team prepares all meals and takes care of all camp chores while guests chill and soak up the atmosphere.

♥ These trips are suitable for any active person in good health. Participants need not be super-fit or experienced kayakers, but some fitness always enhances one's appreciation of the experience.
